- 5. In 1949 a large number of reserve officers of all ranks in the 26-40 age bracket were called to duty for an indefinite period. The components recalled included aviation, smaor and artillery (the entire reserve of AAA officers was recalled). All had wartime service. I do not, however, know of any changes in the Reserve and Mobilization System of Soviet Armed Forces.
- 6. I know of no recent change in the leave policy. In the USSR Soviet officers receive annually 30 days plus one week travel time. In the Soviet Zone of Germany and Austria, they receive 45 days plus a maximum of 20 days for travel. N.O's and EM in the USSR receive no leave durin; their first two years of service. In their third year they are entitled to 15 days plus a maximum of one week travel time. In Germany and Austria they received one leave per tour of occupation duty (a tour may be three to five years). This leave is for 30 days plus a maximum of 15 days for travel.
